FACTS

WHAT DOES CARSON COMMUNITY BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history, checking account information, and overdraft history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Carson Community Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Carson Community Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We Do Not Share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your transactions and experiences	No	We Do Not Share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness	No	We Do Not Share
For our affiliates to market to you	No	We Do Not Share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We Do Not Share

Questions?

Call 918-696-7745 or go to www.CarsonCommunity.Bank

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Carson Community Bank
What we do
How does Carson Community Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Carson Community Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you
	 Open an account or deposit or withdraw from your account Apply for a loan or provide account information or pay your bills Give us your income information or use your credit or debit card
	We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
	State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. (See below for more on your rights under state law.)
Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
	 Carson Community Bank does not share with our affiliates
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Carson Community Bank does not share with nonaffiliates
	·
Joint marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Carson Community Bank does not jointly market

Other important information

In accordance with California law, Carson Community Bank will not share information we collect about California residents with companies outside of Carson Community Bank, except as permitted by law, such as legal processes or as required to service your account. We will limit sharing within our company to the extent required by applicable California law.